INPRINT MARGARETT ROOT BROWN READING SERIES

Highlights from the season

The 2014/2015 Inprint Margarett Root Brown Reading Series had a spectacular season featuring 11 world-renowned authors from September through May. The series, which took place in downtown Houston's Cullen Theater, Wortham Center, attracted more than 4,600 attendees. The series received extensive media coverage and season ticket sales hit a record high.

As a result of an author appearing in the Inprint series last season, 86% of respondents to a survey of individual ticket buyers and 97% of respondents to a survey of season ticket subscribers said they had purchased one or more books by the featured authors.
