The 2022 Inprint Poets & Writers Ball honors Inprint Executive Director Rich Levy for his 25 years of service. Rich joined Inprint in 1995, then an organization with only one full-time staff member and a local focus. A nonprofit with the mission to inspire readers and writers, Inprint has grown exponentially under Rich’s leadership, and the organization has helped to transform Houston into a thriving literary metropolis. Inprint annually serves 15,000 people locally and worldwide with inclusive and accessible readings, conversations, and literary performance programs featuring a diverse array of leading adult and children’s authors, writers workshops for aspiring authors, senior citizens, K-12 teachers, healthcare providers, veterans, the incarcerated, and others, and vital support for some of the world’s top creative writing graduate students at the University of Houston.
